

Sperrin U3A always welcomes new members. If you are retired or semi retired and interested in learning for its own sake with like minded individuals, come along to our monthly meetings for a couple of free taster sessions or email maurabarker@btopenworld.com. You can pursue interests which are educational in the widest sense, including leisure and social pursuits, through mutual interest groups decided upon, formed and led by members. No qualifications are sought or offered - enjoyment is the prime motive.
